My Crochet Version

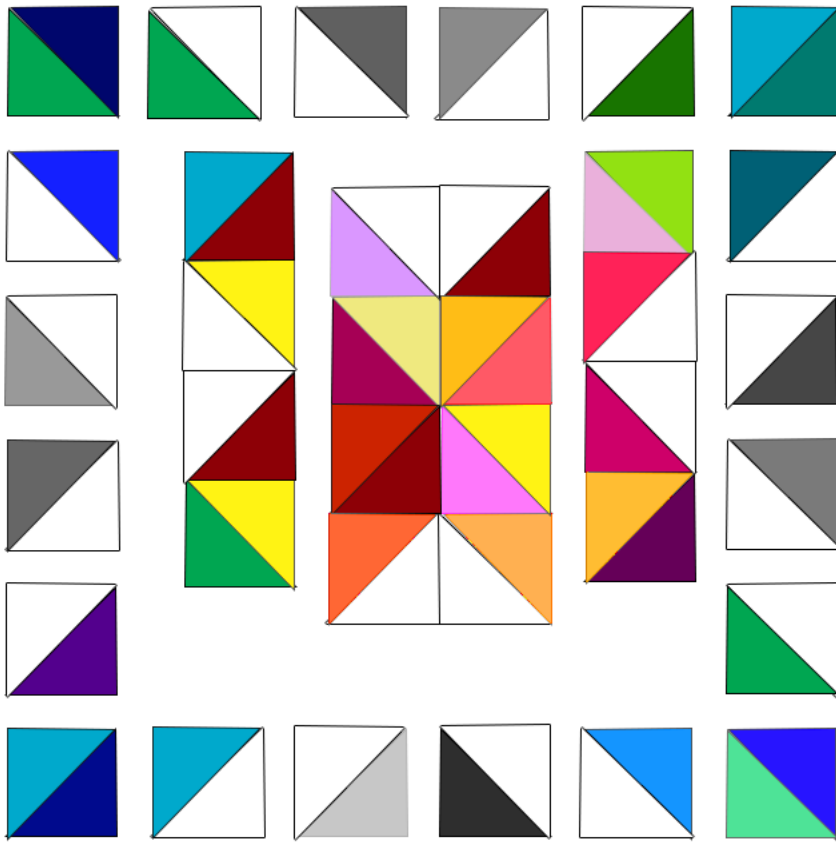

This pattern conversion @ copywrite Tracy Fear, all right reserved.

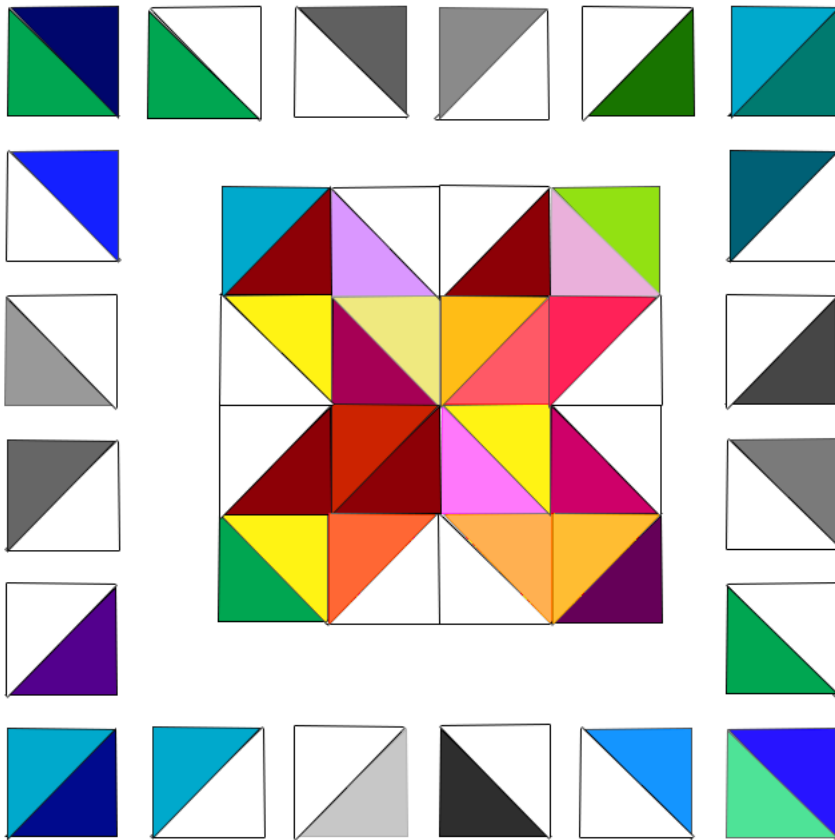

1. Sew the middle 4 together.

2. Sew the top 2 together and the bottom 2 together then sew to the four in step 1.

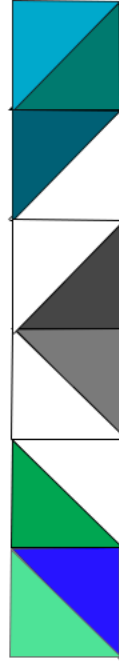

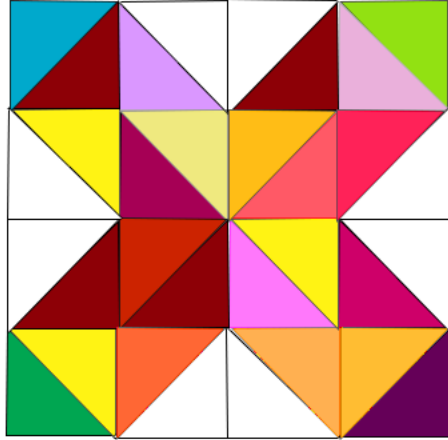

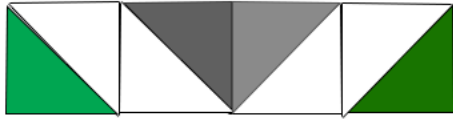

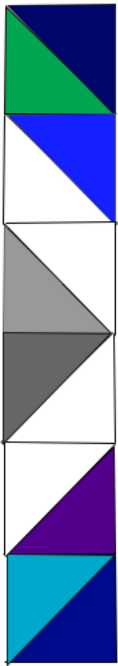

4. Sew the next sides together, 4 squares to make one strip.

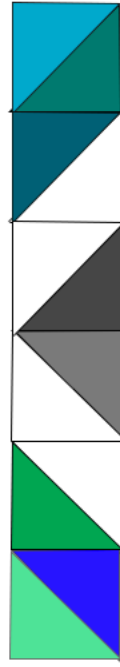

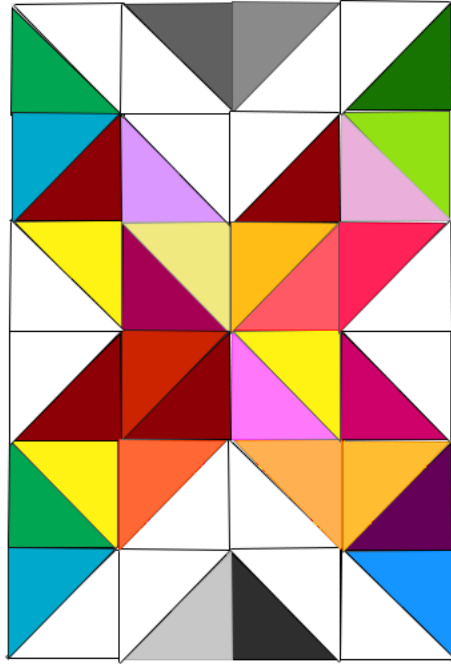

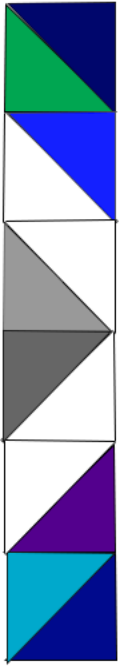

5. Sew the strips to the sides.

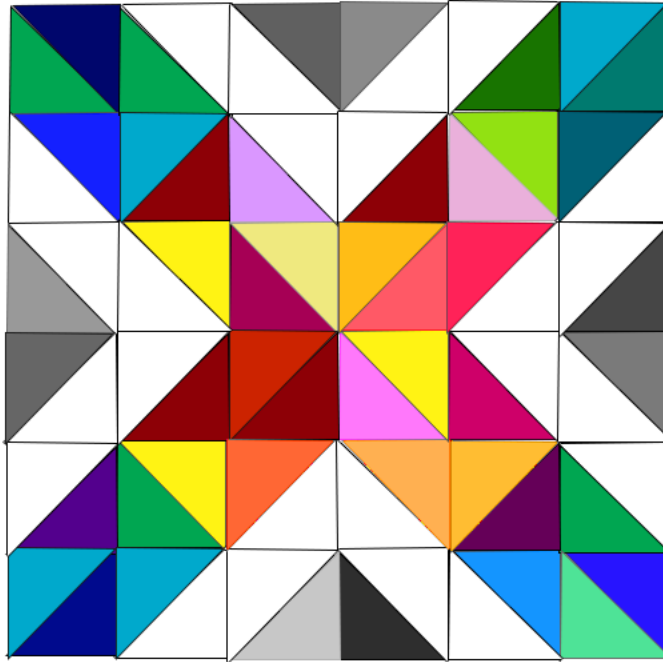

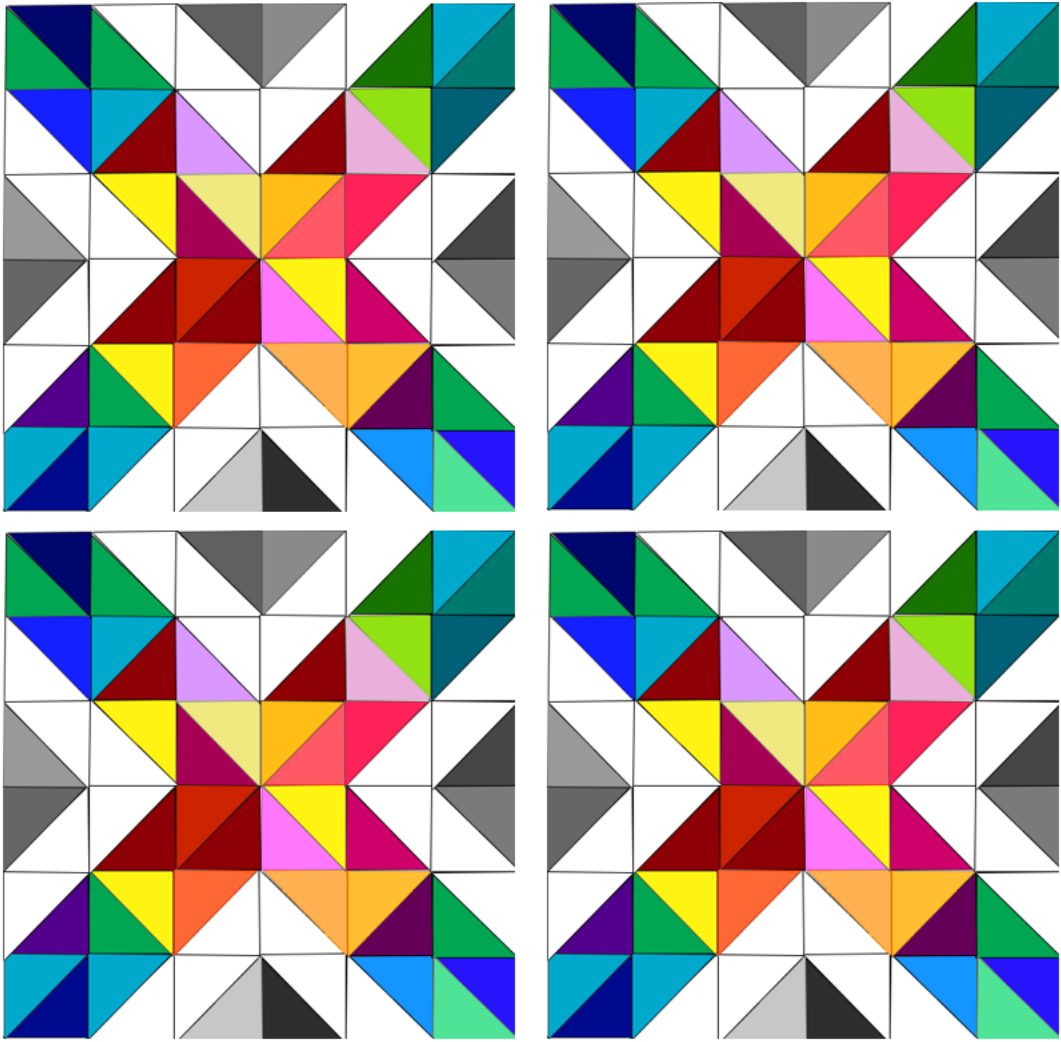

6. Sew the top and bottom4 together and the sides 5 together.

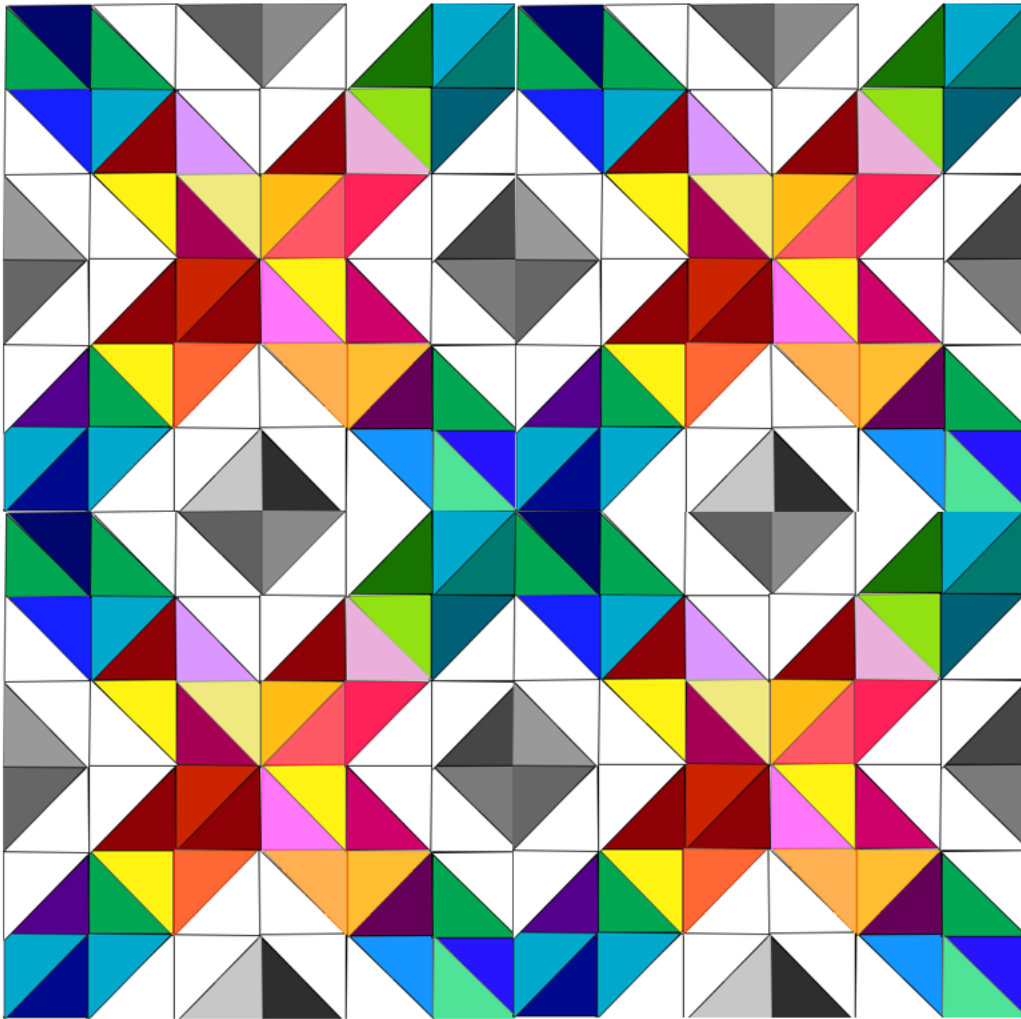

7. Sew the top and bottom onto the body.

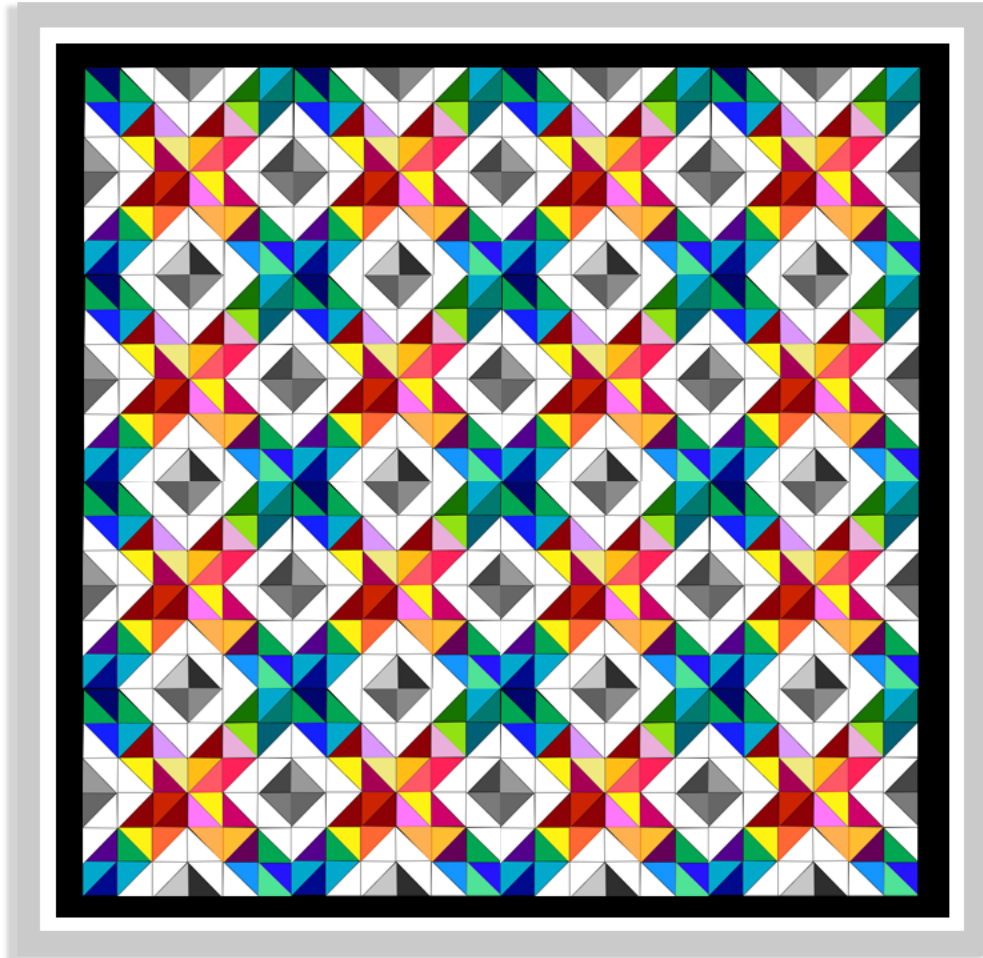

8. Sew the side strips on.

9. The Blocks are sewn together by sewing the first and second 2 together, then sewing the panels together.

10. This is 4 blocks. Each block using the same color layout. Mine has a different color layout as far as shades, but keeping the cools with the cools and warm with the warm.

This is what 8 panels might look like with maybe a black, white, and grey border.
